WESTERN FUELS ASSOCIATION INC.
The National Fuel Supply Cooperative

Ned Leonard
Manager of Communications and Governmental Affairs

November 12, 1998

Matthew Nelson
2807 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Apt. 401
Washington, DC 20008

Dear Mr. Nelson:

Thank you for today's e-mail message requesting materials you saw referenced on Western Fuels Association's website (http://www.westernfuels.org). They are enclosed and include:

- Western Fuels Association, Inc. 1998 Annual Report (Current report)
- 1998 State of the Climate Report (Not requested, but current)
- 1997 State of the Climate Report
- Dr. Sherwood Idso's Kuehnast Lecture at the University of Minnesota in October 1995, CO_2 and the Biosphere: The Incredible Legacy of the Industrial Revolution
- Craig Idso's Arizona State University Climatological Publication (#26) "Future Climate and the Precautionary Principle: The Other Side of the Story"
- Mills·McCarthy & Associates' "Does Price Matter? The Importance of Cheap Electricity for the Economy"
- Our 4-part series on the Rio Treaty including the ads "Why Don't They Tell Us About the Sour Orange Trees?" "Want Higher Electricity Rates and a Return of Inflation? Ignore This Message," "The Rio Treaty Threatens Coal-fired Power Plants Which Supply 56% of America's Electricity," and "Coal-fired Electricity and Ecowatts: America's Best-Kept Secret"
- Our "Iowa" ad, "Mr. President: Don't Force Iowa to Pay More for Energy"
- Our paid response to Ross Gelbspan's Washington Post op-ed, "Hot Air, Cold Truth: Why Do We Pay Attention To the Greenhouse Skeptics?"
- Fred Palmer's speech "Fossil Fuels or the Rio Treaty: Competing Visions for the Future."

4301 Wilson Boulevard, Suite #805 ▪ Arlington, VA 22203-4193 ▪ Telephone 703/907-6163 ▪ Fax 703/907-6161 ▪ E-mail wfa@cais.com

If we can be of any further assistance to you, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Ned Leonard

Enclosures